Forward

The 1950 Echo tells the story of 450 people and of the year they shared together at Kenton High School. Our annual is truly named the 'Echo', for that it is through the years. When in the future we look back upon the mid-century times, we shall remember them more clearly through the eyes of this book. To the Seniors it will bring nostalgia, for these pages close a chapter of their lives—school days. For others, it will recall fond memories of days gone by. Throughout your lives, may it serve you well as a link in your chain of memories.

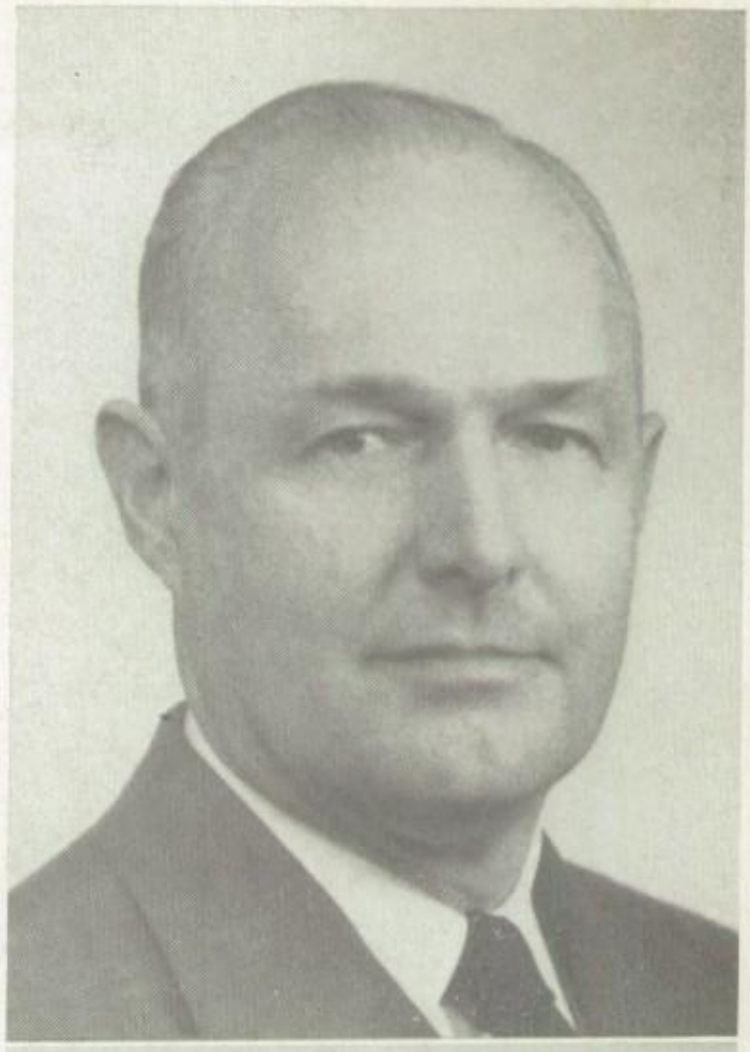
MR. J. CRAWFORD BOWER



To you, the class of 1950:

You found out, usually the hard way, that if you learned to do things well that you had formed an invaluable habit, for you were no longer satisfied to do things poorly.

You learned that to get along with other people you had to treat them decently—the way you wanted to be treated.

You found out that to do something or get something, you had to pay for it—in work, or time or money; that no mature person believes that you really get anything worthwhile in life for nothing.

You learned that one of the signs of maturity was the ability to depend upon yourself in contrast to being taken care of.

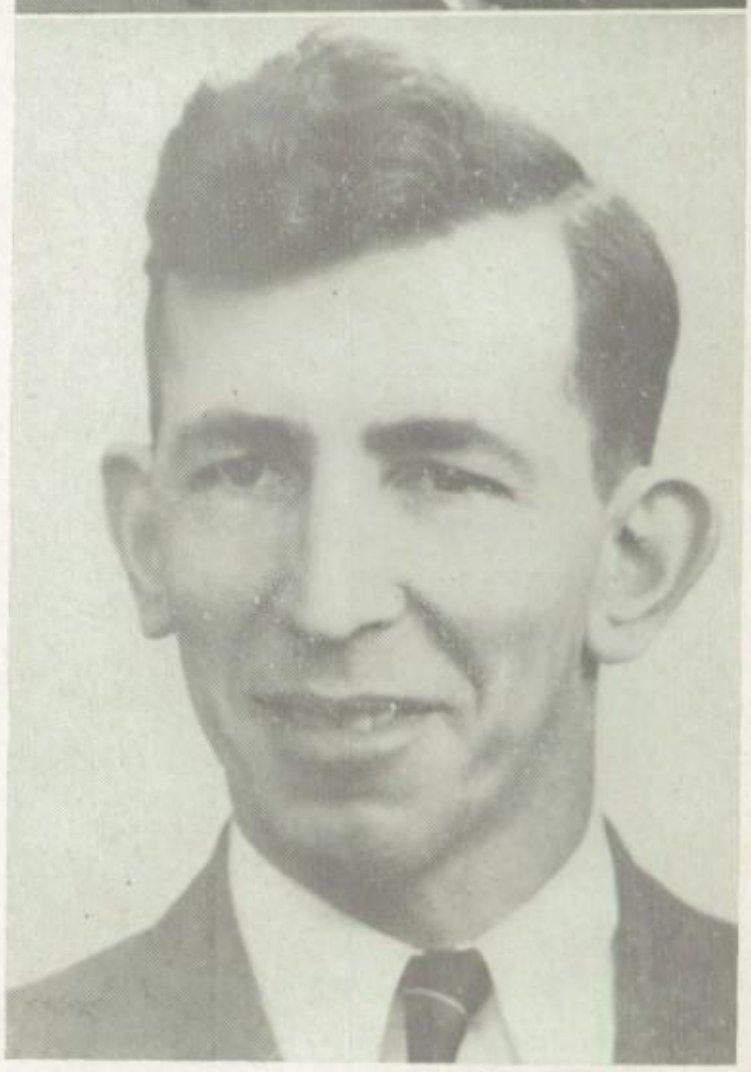
You learned that the great people of the ages that preceded ours have stored up riches for the mind and heart and spirit of those of our time who have learned to understand and use those riches.

You found out that there is no substitute for courage; that times arise when you either face your problems or you are defeated. You learned that you must live with and conquer yourself, you may be your own worst enemy.

If you have found out these things you are becoming an educated person.

Principal

PAUL L. OAKLIEF



Congratulations to the graduating class of 1950 for having successfully completed four years of high school training. We hope these years spent in high school have given you a clearer perspective of the days which are ahead.

The future is always challenging, but your day will come. Act at all times as if the eyes of the world were upon you. If you have a task to perform, perform it as if a great deal depended on it, no matter how insignificant it may be. Those who expect no plaudits, and still do their work well, can face the world with self assurance.

Class History

One fateful September day back in 1946, we Seniors walked up the front steps, our eyes shining with anticipation; we entered the "hallowed halls" of Kenton High School as Freshmen. After days of mad scrambling and deciphering the ever present Senior instructions, we learned where we were to be and what we were to do.

We elected our first class officers then: Chief Shotgun—Robert Frost; Deputy Shotgun—Twilla Anderson; Keeper of the Ink and Holder of the Money Bags—Robert Zeis.

Not long after this, there was a hayride (a nocturnal journey via a tractor pulled wagon, filled with hay and shy children). We went to Jim Allen's farm home. Unfortunately, we Freshmen were too young to realize the purpose of a hayride, but we learned quickly.

We took several tests that year. There was an I. Q. test to see if we were smart enough to be in high school; then there was that nice little Kuder Preference Test (to determine our occupations) which nobody failed; however, a surprisingly large number of students showed a preference for the following jobs: fisherman, steeplepack, bill collector, pawn broker, taxidermist and meat cutter. Certainly this showed we had a very promising class.

That was the year "Baby" Dick Pugh started his career in high school athletics by scoring a touchdown against the varsity, while Shirley Barker and Margaret Davis were two of the reserve cheerleaders. (That was before the days of the platoon system.)

Just about the time school was getting dull in the second semester, Rodney Rish moved in from Dunkirk and caused some excitement among the girls. And so our freshman year came to an end.

We emerged from the comparatively obscure positions of Freshmen and found ourselves Sophomores, confronted with the many new privileges and rights.

For class officers this year we chose Czarina Lois Buchhagen, Chief Commissar Comrade William Amsler and Secretary of Politburo Joanna Born, who was banished to Siberia (Harding High) at the end of the year.

The annual hayride provided an adequate opportunity to try some of the tricks we had failed to learn to do as Freshmen. We went to Varra Jean Hasting's farm residence for the affair.

During the year, the "bugology" students put on a "conservation" program. As the main event of the assembly, two conservative members of the class, "Deadeye" (Paul) Comstock and a "Doublebarrel" (Everett) Grubb, gave a "backwoods cornlikker" skit. They shot snakes, owls and robins, only to show later the errors of such unconservative conduct. It was a great day that mornin' in the history of stage productions.

We members of the Junior class wore out the sidewalks between the high school and the McKitrick hospital to see Bob Morris, the victim of a motor scooter accident, which happened on the first morning of our third year.

As Juniors we felt so good we nearly popped our buttons. Our class officers: Supersonic Missile (prex) Everett Grubb, Proximity Fuse (Veep) Ralph Zachariah, and Keeper of the Geiger Counter (Sectreas) Clair Jones, helped start our year's activities with a blast.

The class sponsored the Homecoming dance and also published for the occasion a newspaper, The Homecomer, which added some "moola" to our class treasury. Our class attendent for Homecoming was Betty Latimer. This was a happy year, for our football team finished the season undefeated.

We also gave a Hallowe'en masquerade party at the canteen. Everett Grubb had donuts for breakfast for months after that "shin-dig'.!

In December the choir gave the operetta "Naughty Marietta". Little did we realize that Margie Pfeiffer (Marietta) really had such a wonderful voice. And didn't she make a cute looking boy?

About the middle of February, we presented our play "Jane Eyre." It was one of those memorable moments of the stage when Dolores Smith, as Jane, made a grand entrance with her dress unbuttoned down the back. And where did George Fox ever learn to kiss that way? During his scene with Joanne Holycross he even wiped his mustache off on her!

As the year came to a close, the Junior-Senior prom was given in honor of the Seniors. The theme "Stairway to the Stars" was effectively carried out in the gymnasium. What Junior or Senior cannot recall that heavenly blue sky with glittering stars overhead? We even had angels (Sophomores).

This year, after the band had saved their pennies and the student council generously had given $1,000 to the organization, the band was "regarbed" with new uniforms for the first time in about twenty years.

At last we were Seniors. The "nifty fifties" we called ourselves and were we hot. Our hair was smooth and our clothes were slick; as Seniors we made a terrific impression.

Our honorable dignitaries this year were: His Royal Highness, King Emerson I, better known as Dwight Comstock. As Prime Minister, we chose Paul Bishop, and Chancellor of the Exchequer was Robert Zeis.

Our football record had a let-down this year; it seems the fellows exerted themselves too much last year, and this year just couldn't get on the ball. Need we say more?

Homecoming was sponsored by the Student Council. Our Queen Betty Latimer and her attendants, Margaret Comer and Ellen Buchhagen, were given a royal coronation and ball in the high school gymnasium.

This year square dancing seemed to be "the dance." The F. F. A., F. H. A., Hi-Y and Y-Teens all engaged in this sport. Who cannot remember seeing Miriam Williams flying through the air at the end of Donald Heilman's manly arms?

The F. H. A. also sponsored a talent show. Do you remember how Beverly Wynn danced like Ann Miller in her Sophomore year and then grew up to look like Al Jolson in her Senior year?

The winter of our Senior year was very strange. On January 25th, the old thermometer stood at 70° above zero. I told you we were a hot class.

Our up and coming "dramatists" formed the Thespians Club this year. The officers were: President, Marjorie (Cleopatra) Pfeiffer; Vice President Jim (Horatio) Allen; Secretary, Dolores (Juliet) Smith and Treasurer Harlan (Hamlet) Roby.

The Dramatics class put on two plays during the year. The first one was 'Friday the Thirteenth'. Sly, cunning Bob Sprague was the villian who fooled Kipples (Everett Grubb), the policeman. The second presentation was 'Song of My Heart.' Joanne Holycross, as Sylvia, created a stir by deciding to marry a different man at the last minute. Lois Height, as Shirley, was the cause of a duel, and Dolores Kohler, as Desiree, stole Sylvia's betrothed.

After weeks of practice, Howard Lindlay's "Life With Father" was presented April 20 and 21. Father's (Don Heilman) temper and his dislike for church services were quelled before the last act by his sweet but clever wife Vinnie (Marjorie Pfeiffer). Dwight Comstock and Lois Buchhagen (as Clarence and Mary) provided the 'romantic' interest in the play. Varra Jean Hastings played Aunt Cora in a hilarious manner.

In February the upper 40% of the class 'sweated blood' on the Senior Scholarship tests. We wondered if they were worth it? Everett Grubb, Marjorie Pfeiffer and Bill Amsler took the three high places respectively at K. H. S. and placed second, fifth and seventh in the county.

At last the end of the year arrived; and after Award Day and Senior Day, we walked down the aisles of the high school auditorium for the last time as students of Kenton High and received our diplomas. And so ended our high school life. We became Alumni.

Class Prophecy

1970 finds Kenton, Ohio, a great metropolis with many lovely suburbs. Some of the most prominent citizens at this time are the 1950 graduates of Kenton High.

Dr. Robert Zeis, a psychologist in Goshen Heights, is at this time examining the case history of Mr. Paul Allen Streets, who, while coaching the "Feudin-Ruffin" football team for a post season game at the Corn Cob Bowl, was hit on the head by a ball which was kicked by his star fullback, Ralph 'The Toe' Zachariah. Mr. Streets is being attended by nurses Miriam Williams, Shirley Barker and Marilyn Kempsell.

At the Chip-'n'jyp Theatre in Pfeiffer Haven, which is managed by Irvin Wood and Owen Leigh, the current billings feature Irma Collins and Don Bailey in "Donnie's Little Rocket Ship" and Donna Harvey and Gene Hinton in "Sugar Throat Thomas from Cabbage Alley," with Margaret Davis, Eleanor Graham and Norma Longbrake.

Also in Pfeiffer Haven at the Opera House is the noted pianist Lois Height; the Hobo-Broken Quartet with Jim Allen, Rodney Rish, Bob Sprague and Bill Amsler; and Madame Marjorito Pfeiffer, who has just returned from a concert tour in Paris.

At the Nan's Fly or Glide-In, is proprietor Nancy Kaser, who is ably assisted in her duties by Martha Rall and Marjorie Cave.

In Hepburn is the Seymour Secretarial School which is managed by Betty and Evelyn Seymour. Two of their instructors are Irene Guttenburg and Marianne Schoffner.

'Trace-em-down' Grubb is on the job. This master detective, known in his younger days as Everett 'I've-got-you-covered' Grubb, is now on the case of the disappearing hamburg. His co-worker, Bob 'Where-did-he-go' Morris, is also baffled by this case.

Clayton Rogers, Bob Lease and Tom Rettig have opened their own implement store in Lynnton. They are on the verge of making a sale to Robert Laubis and Tom Predmore.

In the juvenile court at Taylor Creek, Dorothy Wood, famous woman lawyer, is arguing with William Shepherd, Ohio's Senior Senator, concerning the rights of women aviators. Figuring largely in this debate are Twilla 'Speed' Anderson, Marilyn 'Up-in-the-air' Brown, and Orvid 'The Traveler' Braig.

At the Fleasia Flophouse in Pleasantville, manager Paul Bishop is greatly concerned about the need of finding vacant rooms for two famous patrons, Betty Zachariah and Dorothy Van Buskirk, who are reporters for the Classie Lassie, which is edited by Betty Latimer.

A large plant which manufactures 'Commy Dummy Kernel' breakfast food in Dudland is owned by Dwight, Lauren and Paul Comstock. The head dieticians are Lois Buchhagen and Joan Graham. Counting box tops for the current contest involving the new Clipper ship is the second Vice-President, Donald Heilman.

Class Prophecy

In the heart of Buckeye is a very fashionable boarding school, appropriately named "The Snazzy School for Brainy Young Ladies." It is managed by Joanne McKinley, Beverly Wynn and Shirley Koch.

Just on the outskirts of town there is a vast ranch owned and operated by Jane Churchill, who is momentarily worried about her trainer, Dick 'Limp-a-long-Cassidy' Mulvaine. (He was recently kicked by his favorite steed 'Slingback- and-forth.')

Campaigning for Mayor this year is one of Kenton's prominent citizens, Ronald Brown. His worthy opponent is Joyce Friedel, manager of the Super Market chain stores. This race will bear close watching as the campaign managers, Charles Gerlach and Dolores Kohler, prepare their respective platforms.

A new television show, sponsored by Eugene Dyer's 'Sudsy-Wudsy Snowdrops,' the miracle soap of the century, has just engaged Bob Frost and his Be-bop Boys featuring that delightful vocalist, Kathleen Timmons. This week, as guest star, they have comedian George 'Roll 'em in the Aisles' Fox.

Madamoselle Varra Jean Hastings, the noted interior decorator, is well established in her attractive shop on Parkwood Boulevard in Dudlynn. She is, at the present time, redecorating Miss Joanne Holycross's home in Hepburn. Miss Holycross is planning a large party at the completion of the work. The guests of honor will be Mary Jane Myers, secretary of the Pi Pi Po Sorority and Donna Mae Park, clever young designer of Men's wear.

Those great explorers Charles Harp, Frank Harvey, Don Harrison and Neil Williams are arranging passage for a trip to Africa.

The Vogue Modeling Agency offers for the small sum of two thousand dollars an hour, the top models, namely: Marilyn Hatchett, Marjorie Sprang and Dolores Smith.

If by any chance you turn the dial of your radio to Station P. U. Q., the booming voice of Richard Pugh will spring forth to enlighten you on the sports topics of the day.

At the High School gymnasium in Lynnton, the opposing coaches of the league basketball teams, Joanne Sryock and Jo Anna Sheldon, are discussing a change of rules with the official referee, Jeanette Worthington.

A new Vocational Trades School opened last week in Taylor Creek. Instructors are those master-mind professors of the saw, Leonard Jacobs, Clair Jones and Bob Williams.

Class Achievements

The ninth and tenth of February were red letter dates for the Junior class, who this year presented as the annual Junior class play "Mother Is a Freshman." The cast was chosen before Christmas, and rehearsals began after the holidays. "Mother Is a Freshman" was directed by the Junior class advisor, Mr. James Griffith.

Mrs. Abigail Fortitude Abbott, portrayed in the play by Lois Fitzpatrick, suddenly finds her finances in a critical condition. In order to keep her daughter Susan—Winifred Katterheinrich—enrolled at Pointer College, she accepts a scholarship which the college awards to anyone whose first two names are "Abigail Fortitude."

Abigail is definitely not wanted at the school by Dean Gillingham, cleverly portrayed by Charles Brount. On the other hand, Professor Michaels, the heart throb of the campus chicks—Robert Gemmell—welcomes her into his zoology class. A romantic 'rectangle' is formed when "Bobo" Jackson, B. M. O. C.—Fred Barrett —falls in love with Susan, who is in love with Professor Michaels, who is in love with Abby; however, all's well that ends well, and the final curtain of this three act comedy found everyone well on his way to living happily ever after.

The rest of the cast included Mary Lou Briedenbach, Jessie Ward, Shirley Roby, Sally Wachalec, Sally Harley, Mary Mustain, Cecelia Dick, Barbara Brown, Mack Flinn, Norman Glock, Bob Cooper, Duane Deardorff, Bill Hale, Dean Zachetto and Roberta Kinsey.

The fashions this year featured the 'slim silhouette.' Small multi-colored scarfs and 'ropes' of pearls were worn with the traditional skirt and sweater combination. The boys sported 'crew cuts' and bright corduroy jackets and shirts. Very shortly tirmmed hair made the 'headlines' this season as simplicity dominated hair styles. Footwear ranged from army combat boots to suede shoes for the fellows, while saddle oxfords and loafers continued to be the preferance of the girls.

The end of the second semester meant final exams for all underclassmen, but to the Juniors it meant weeks of feverish labor in preparation for the annual formal dance honoring the Seniors. In order to aid in financing the prom, the Juniors took over the sale of candy during the second semester.

When the long awaited night arrived, the gymnasium of Kenton High was transformed into a veritable fairyland of gay decorations, soft lights, and starry eyed couples, who drifted across the floor to dreamy music. A few sophomores eagerly performed various tasks such as checking wraps and serving the delicious refreshments.

This dance was the Seniors' last as students of the high school. Now the underclassmen began to think of the next year when some of them would be upperclassmen. Ah! That coveted title—upperclassmen. But who has more fun than upperclassmen? (Don't tell anyone.) The underclassmen!

This year the Student Council was one of the most active organizations in the school. It sponsored several dances for the students, arranged for the Homecoming activities, alloted the concession stand to various groups, and appropriated a sum of money which was used to buy various fixtures for K. H. S.

The Student Council acted as a 'go-between' for the teachers and the students. Any problem which a student or a group of students wished to call to the attention of the faculty was introduced at the meetings. The council was composed of the presidents of the various clubs in the school; thus, even though the delegates were not directly elected by the students to their posts on the council, they were in a sense their representatives.

Mr. Paul Oaklief acted as advisor. Paul Bishop was president, Dwight Comstock was vice president, and Dolores Smith was secretary-treasurer.

Y-Teens

The Young Women's Christian Association sponsors the Y-Teen group, which is open to all sophomore, junior and senior girls. The purpose of the Y-Teens is to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians. In this endeavor one seeks to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God.

The Y-Teen Cabinet consisted of four elected officers and eight appointed officers. The two advisors of the club were Miss Anne Johnson and Mrs. Florence Gramlich. All cabinet members were sent to a summer conference camp in order that they might become better leaders in the club.

The cabinet presented the first program of the year in September in order to share their camp experiences with the other girls. The annual Recognition Service was held in October. At this time all new members were received into the club and were later welcomed at and informal tea. In October Aszda Stratz, a Latvian girl, talked to the club about the schools and customs of her country. In November the girls prepared their own program, which was a panel discussion on personal problems. The service project for the month collected money for the World Fellowship Fund. The Y. W. C. A. were guests of the Y-Teens for the Christmas, at which time the group presented a program of Christmas music and a pageant under the direction of the music chairman. 'Chocolates for Christmas for children overseas' was December's service project. During the first semester the Y-Teens engaged in a candy retail business which was conducted in the front hall at noon.

January found the Hi-Y and the Y-Teens frolicking at an old fashioned square dance which was held in the gymnasium. The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was held in February. Fine entertainment was provided for the girls and their mothers. In March the Ada Club came to Kenton and presented a delightful program. The girls hoped that this would be the beginning of a close relationship between the two clubs. In April the members held a covered dish supper and an election of officers. The formal installation of the new officers took place in May, in order that these officers might spend the summer months planning the 1950-1951 season for the ever-busy group.

Junior Hi-Y

The Junior Hi-Y is an organization of freshman and sophomore boys. The group though small, engaged in many activities throughout the school year. In October new members were initiated into the club. A feature of this year's program included a discussion panel which was held once a month. The members discussed hobbies, music, personal problems and many other interesting and up-to-date topics. They were lead in this activity by their competent advisor. Mr. Raymond Hackney. During the winter the group was fortunate to have the following guest speakers: Mr. James C. Bower, Superintendent of the Kenton Public Schools; Mr. James Allen, a members of the Board of Education, and Mr. Pete Ramge, local game warden. The club enjoyed a gift exchange and a covered dish dinner held during the holiday season.

Officers for the year included:

President—Junior Sheldon
Vice President, Paul Willeke
Secretary and Treasurer—Richard Young

Senior Hi-Y

In September the Sr. Hi-Y started a very active year with the initiation of twenty-five new members. The goal of the chapter this year was 'To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and the community its high standards of Christian character.' The group is open to any junior or senior boy in the high school. The meetings were held the second Tuesday of every month. Mr. Ralph Waters served as advisor to the club.

The educational program consisted of entertaining speeches made upon well selected topics which interested every member of the group. Among the various other Hi-Y activities, the members sponsored a Thanksgiving Chapel. Funds for the club were raised by the operation of the concession stand at several athletic events. In January a square dance was held with the Y-Teens, and refreshments were served after the dance, which was held in the gymnasium.

F. H. A.

The Future Housewives of America had an enrollment of sixty-five girls this year. Miss Helen Terrill was the head advisor of the group, and Miss Elizabeth Terrill was the assistant director.

Two profitable sales tax drives were held during the year. A lace tablecloth and other useful articles were purchased for the home economic department by this year's chapter. The club sponsored the home economic classes with their work in crafts. These crafts included clay molding, glass and textile painting, plastic molding, glass etching, and bead making. In December cookies and candy were made by the third and fourth year classes and distributed as gifts within the city.

This year, as in former years, the two Senior girls who had maintained the highest grades in the home economics department during a period of at least two years were awarded prizes for their outstanding work. They were Beverly Wynn and Joanna Sheldon.

The main attractions of the club's program were the square dances which were held with the F. F. A. in the gymnasium. The girls also enjoyed several pot luck suppers during the year, and in November they sponsored the annual KHS talent show. A joint banquet of the F. H. A. and the F. F. A. was held in March.

Officers for this year included:

President—Jo Anna Sheldon
First Vice President—Joan McKinley
Second Vice President— Beverly Wynn
Secretary—Donna Harvey

Mrs. Isabel Howell was librarian for the first semester. When Mrs. Howell left KHS in January to take a position at Connecticut State Teachers' College, the vacated post was filled by Mrs. Janet B. Mannino. Both teachers have been very helpful in directing the students' library efforts. The library subscribed to many interesting newspapers and periodicals during the year. It also contained a galaxy of novels and reference books.

Custodians

Max Newman, chief engineer at KHS and his able assistants, Burley Long, Albert Smith, and Tom Jester, kept the bullding in "ship shape" during the 1949-1950 school year. Not only did they take care of the temperature of the building, but they took care of a few tempers, also. More than once the patient men pried open one of those 'nasty' locks that seemed to always be stuck; and more than once they opened a locked classroom door for a 'forgetful Fred', who was sure that he was going to fail that math test the next day if he didn't get his book, the one that he had forgotten in his frenzy to get outside the door before the last vibrations of the bell disappeared. For these and many other acts of kindness, we shall long remember our custodians.

Cafeteria

The cafeteria at Kenton High was capably run this year by Miss Clara Raber and Mrs. Esther Temple, who were assisted by several industrious students. On an average day 120 students were served tasty and well balanced meals from the steamtables. These meals were planned by Miss Raber in co-operation with state dieticians. Each meal cost around thirty cents. Miss Barbara Brown and Mrs. Marie Spencer acted as cashiers during the season. Miss Raber and Mrs. Temple also provided the meals for various school banquets and parties.

National Thespian Society

The National Thespian Society, an organization for students interested in the study of dramatics, was organized in Kenton High School on January 31, 1950. Thespian membership is based on the point system. Students must attain a certain number of points in school-sponsored drama productions before they can obtain admission to the organization.

Students initiated into the local chapter Troupe 1030 were: Marjorie Pfeiffer, Dolores Smith, James Allen, Harland Roby, Everett Grubb, Fred Barrett, Robert Sprague, Paul Bishop, Duane Deardorff and Marilyn Hatchett.

The group took a one act play "Shadow of a Dream" to the State Drama Festival at Bowling Green on April 1st. The cast was composed of Harland Roby, Marjorie Pfeiffer, Marilyn Hatchett, Fred Barrett and Dolores Smith. Robert Sprague, James Allen, Everett Grubb, Duane Deardorff and Paul Bishop assisted in the production of the play.

Officers for the year were as follows: Marjorie Pfeiffer, president; James Allen, vice president; Dolores Smith, secretary; Harland Roby, treasurer. Miss Isabel Sloan was the troupe sponsor.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll, the International Society for high school journalists, was organized in 1926 for the purpose of encouraging and rewarding individual achievement in journalism and allied fields. The ancient medieval writing tools—a quill pen and a rolled parchment—gave it its name.

The chapter in Kenton High School is known as the Robert A. Weaver Chapter, named in honor of Mr. Robert A. Weaver, who was the founder of the Echo in 1904. The first honorary member was Mr. Carl W. Smith, the first editor of the Echo. Mr. Carl Russell, journalism instructor, was appointed a member at the time of the granting of the charter.

A student, in order to become a member of the Quill and Scroll, must meet the following requirement: (1) He must be a Junior or Senior. (2) He must be in the upper third of his class in general scholastic standing. (3) He must have done superior work in some phase of journalistic or creative endeavor. (4) He must be recommended by the advisor or by the committee governing publications. (5) He must be approved by the executive secretary of the National Headquarters in Chicago.

New members to this society in KHS were initiated in the spring. The following were members in 1949-1950: Marjorie Pfeiffer, Editor of the Echo Yearbook; Everett Grubb, Business Manager of the Echo publications; and Beverly Wynn, Editor of the Echo Newspaper..

Some of its performances for the year were at the Thanksgiving Assembly, a dramatic play, the Senior Class play, and the District Contest which was held an April 15 at Ohio Northern University.

Members of this group participated in Festivals at Findlay and Delaware which were held for more advanced high school students. The orchestra played at the annual pop concert, March 24.

The officers for the year were: Robert Frost, President; Janet Vermillion, Vice President; and Marilyn Kempsell, Secretary-Treasurer.

The 1949-1950 year was an excellent year for the KHS Choir. The director this year was Mr. Richard Fleming, who very capably filled the posititon. The group's first appearance was made at the Thanksgiving Chapel program which was sponsored by the Senior Hi-Y. On December 22, 1949, the eighty voice choir presented a Christmas choral program. They were assisted in this Program by the Ellis Junior High Chorus. Numbers on the program included many familiar carols. In February the Choir sent eight people to the Findlay Musical Festival. In the spring the Choir presented a concert which was enjoyed by all who attended the affair.

The Choir entered the District Band, Orchestra and Chorus Contest which was held at Ohio Northern University in the spring. The choruses which received a first rating there later participated in the State Contest which was held at Capitol University. Several soloists went to the Northwestern District Solo and En-

Officers for the year included the following: Dolores Smith, President; Margaret Comer, Vice President; James Allen, Secretary, and Burke Ries, Treasurer.

Adorned in the traditional black robes and white collars, the members of the 1949-1950 Choir were a fine group of singers who enjoyed music and who helped others to enjoy it also.

The Echo Annual was published this year in the hope of preserving some of the fond memories of KHS school days, 1950. This book tells of the various departments and activities that are found within the school and the story behind each.

The members of the staff feel that they have had a valuable experience by virtue of working on the yearbook. The work of the yearbook is divided into four separate parts, namely: advertising, pictures, writing, and editing. In the fall, journalism students sold advertisement space for the book. The 'Echo' is a self-supported project and as such relies greatly upon our advertisers. Selling 'ads' gave the students useful practice in salesmanship and public relations. In the late fall a 'dummy' was set up. The dummy is a skeleton of what the real book will look like; the students then use this 'dummy' as a guide in writing and planning pictures. A budget was also set up at this time. Copy for the book was prepared by the students and edited by the editor. In the early spring, student subscriptions were taken. Mr. R. L. Shephey, and Mr. George Johnson provided most of the pictures, the Canton Engraving Company furnished the 'cuts' for the pictures; and the Worden Publishing Company, Richwood, Ohio, published the book.

Marjorie Pfeiffer served as Editor-in-Chief of the annual this year. Everett Grubb acted as Business Manager and Don Heilman was Circulation Manager.

SENIOR NO SHAKE ON STATE TESTS

Senior ! Just where did you stand on the Ohio State University Psychological test which was given to eight K. H. S. seniors four weeks ago?

As you may know, these tests compare your mental ability to that of all the persons in the State of Ohio who have taken the test. For instance, if you scored seventy-four out of the one hundred and fifty questions, you would probably place in the seventy-fourth percentile which is a C. The seventy-fourth percentile means that, with little effort on your part, you are more likely to succeed through college than seventy-four other persons. Those scoring above the seventy-fifth percentile will be awarded a Certificate of Merit. Those scoring between the seventy-fifth and the fiftieth percentile will receive a Certificate of Distinction. Those scoring between the fiftieth and the twenty-fifth percentile will receive a Certificate of Participation. Those scoring below the twenty-fifth percentile will receive no certificate.

Of the eight seniors who took the test, two scored in the 90-100 percentile, one in the 75-89 percentile, two in the 50-74 percentile, one in the 25-49 percentile, and two in the 0-24 percentile. Of the 20-75 percentile group, one scored in the 75-89 percentile, and the other in the 50-74 percentile. If you have a score on the top of your report card, it means that you are in the 90-100 percentile. Of course, by the law of averages, 10 seniors, or thereabouts, have above average scores.

If you have a score on the top of your report card, it means that you are in the 90-100 percentile. Of course, by the law of averages, 10 seniors, or thereabouts, have above average scores.

NEW PLANS FOR CANTEEN

Soda Shop now is going to be added to the Teen Canteen that the officers would like to have the students know. There is no cost to almost the identical refreshments.

Another thing, which we are very proud of, is that two seniors made the high scores of 131 each, while we are sorry that those were three low scores of 21.

When asked to compare our senior class to that of previous years, Mr. Oxford said, "Even though it seems impossible, all the senior classes tend to follow the statistical curve of grades as good sheep."

Dwight Comstock

For those students that are not sure when the Canteen is open just remember this: It is open, Wednesdays 7:30-10:30, Fridays 7:30-11:30, Saturdays 7:30-12:00, and Sundays 7:30-11:00.

MOTHER IS A FRESHMAN

"Mother Is A Freshman" is the play selected for the Junior class play. The play was selected unanimously by the class officers, Mr. Paul Oxford, principal, and Mr. James Griffith, class advisor, who will direct the play.

Try-outs will be held after Christmas at a time to be announced. It is expected that a very large number of students will be able to try out for the roles, while copies of the play will be made available.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Question: What would you do if you had a "Scrooge"?

Tom Rittig: "I'd have fun with it."

Norma Rogers: "Probably eat it."

Dick Hatchett: "Throw it in the garbage".

Charles Gerlach: "I'd eat it".

Shirley Ann: "I'd keep it".

Verra Jean Hastings: "I'd give it to someone else".

If you had a "Scrooge" you would have a picture of an elephant that lived in Africa.

"FRIDAY THE 13TH" SCHEDULED FOR DECEMBER 14

"Friday the 13th" will be presented on December the 14th by the Dramatic Arts class of Kenton High School. The general plot is the mysterious death of Philip Hammond which causes his grandmother, Mrs. Goddard to conduct an investigation; for she believes he was murdered. The action carries through three acts and the ending is a great surprise.

Mr. Griffith who teaches the class is directing the play. The class will build the scenery "as a project in stage setting."

A list of characters is as follows: Ming Wong, a lovely Chinese house servant, Lois Height; Kipples, the brainy detective, Everett Grubb; Cole Mattson, a newspaper man, Duane Dearhart; Laurie Mary, Coles Dancer, Lois Norton; Hope Stanford, one of the guests, Joanne Holycross; Paula Hammond, a woman about town, Betty Latimer; Gary Wheeler, dealer in rare jewels, Jim Allen; Bob Whiting, the charming host, Bob Sprague; Mrs. Goddard, an elderly lady, Dolores Smith; Sadie, her maid, Dorothy Wood; Madame Alba, a medium, Jane Churchill.

TRAVEL PLANS IN MAKING

It has been contemplated that the Junior and Senior Agriculture Classes are going to take an educational trip to Detroit, December 2nd and 3rd.

The trip is to include visiting the Ford Tractor Plant on Friday afternoon, going into Canada Friday evening, visiting Greenfield Village Saturday morning, and the Cleaver Willow Run Bomber Plant in the afternoon.

At Echo press time it was not definite that such a trip would be taken. Due to the recent steel strike, the Ford Tractor Plant does not have enough steel and may have to close on or about December 1 unless they secure some more steel. In that case the trip would have to be postponed until sometime in January or February.

Beverly Wynn, Editor
Mr. Carl Russell, Echo Advisor

The 1949-1950 Echo newspaper was edited by Beverly Wynn, and Everett Grubb was the business manager. This year there were ten editions of the paper. Such topics as plays, sports, gossip, styles, tests and other articles of general interest to the students were reported in an entertaining and informative manner. The papers were sold to the students on a subscription basis. This afforded the class a chance to prepare a budget in accordance with the number of subscriptions received. Four hunded copies were printed of each edition.

The twelve members of the K. H. S. Cheerleading Squad were coached by Miss Joy Garrison, girls' physical education coach. The cheerleaders were chosen for their appearance, attitude, personality, acrobatic ability, and interest in cheering. They led crowds in lusty cheers during the football and basketball seasons and added a great deal of spice to these games.

In the middle of the year, the group initiated a 'platoon' system of cheering. The squad was divided into two teams. One was team A, comprised of seniors and juniors, and the other was team B, made up of sophomores and freshmen. The two teams alternately cheered at the reserve and varsity games.

The members sponsored many different projects this year to raise money for new uniforms. They sold football piggy banks, combs, basketball programs and chances on a turkey. They also ran the concession stand at several athletic contests.

The team appeared during the football season in red corduroy slacks and white sweaters. During the basketball season, the girls donned white corduroy jumpers and red blouses. The team was a snappy group and did much to arouse interest in the athletic events.

Charles Gerlach, senior. Right tackle. Charlie did a fine job of defense, and his line play was far above average.

Paul Comstock, senior. Left halfback. Paul was a good ball carrier with a lot of dash and drive.

Paul Streets, senior. Quarterback and right halfback. Paul was a strong defensive player. Quarterback sneaks were his specialty.

Dick Mulvaine, senior. Quarterback. Dick added a lot of drive and spark to the team.

Clair Jones, senior. Right halfback. Pete was small but mighty. He received a leg injury which kept him out of a good part of the season.

Ralph Zacariah, senior. Fullback. Ralph was one of the fastest men on the team and was extremely reliable.

Eugene Dyer, senior. Right tackle. Gene was one of the unsung heroes of the line. He seemed to participate in every play.

Ronald Brown, senior. Right end. His 'sticky' fingers and fast wits enabled the Cats to set up several touchdown plays.

Dick Pugh, senior. Fullback. Dick was a three year letterman who was switched from end to fullback in his senior year. He moved back to end on several pass plays and helped Kenton score many times.

Bob Zeis, senior. Right halfback. Bob's services to the team were cut short this year by an injury sustained in the opening game of the season.

Orvid Braig, senior. Tackle. Orvid was strong on the offense.

Gene Pifer, junior. Left halfback. Gene was a threat as a break-away runner, and no blocking seemed to stop him.

Charles Smith, junior. Right tackle. 'Chuck' was a fast lineman and did a fine job.

Robert Styer, junior. Tackle. A good all-around player.

Fred Barrett, junior. Left tackle. Fred was a two-year letterman who played an outstanding defensive game.

Gene Osbun, junior. Right end and right halfback. Gene was a hard fellow for any opponent to bring down. He specialized in short passes.

Jack Lamley, sophomore. Center. Jack developed into a fine line backer, and was a steady offensive player.

David Davis, sophomore. Quarterback. Dave showed much promise by his playing and should spearhead the 1950 team.

Bill Sellers, sophomore. End. He should develop into a fine pass receiver and line flanker.

Roger Page, sopohomore. Roger was a dependable end and played a steady game.

The Varsity K is one of the oldest organizations in Kenton High School. To be eligible to join this group, one must earn a letter in one of the major sports—football, basketball, or baseball. The motto of the Varsity K is "Clean sportsmanship and clean living."

In the fall the Varsity K sponsored a dance in the gymnasium. This dance was held after a football game and was attended by many students and fans. Later in the fall the members initiated candidates for the club. The club sold good luck pins and charms to the students during the year.

Mr. Robert Ruffing, head football coach, was advisor to the group. He was assisted by Mr. Lee Gellenbeck, head basketball coach, and Mr. Richard Pearson, assistant football coach.

The following were officers for the year: President, Paul Bishop; Vice President, Dick Pugh; Secretary and Treasurer, Ralph Zachariah.

Paul Comstock, senior. Captain Paul was a snappy little playmaker and an excellent defensive man. His leadership and spirit played an important role in the success of the Wildcats.

Dick Pugh, senior. Dick was the high scoring forward with an 18 point average per game. He was a rough, aggressive ball player and really knew his way around the floor.

Paul Bishop, senior. Paul was a steady, good ball player. He was especially good when the going got rough and the chips were down.

Bob Zeis, senior. Starting late, Bob proved his speed very valuable to the Cats.

Rodney Rish, senior. Rodney was a hard worker with the ability to shine in spots. His influence helped the Cats over the bumps.

Gene Osbun, junior. Big Gene was a tower of strength on rebounds, and he scored 274 points this year for a 17 point average per game. He was a key man on offense and passed very nicely.

Louis Latham, junior. Louis was a fast aggresive guard who was a 'hustler' all the way. He was one of the best passers and floor men on the squad.

Gene Pifer, junior. Gene was excellent at the one handed shot from anywhere, and he was a good team man. He has possibilities of being a high scorer next year.

Bill Sellers, sophomore. A player who is constantly improving. He has great promise of becoming a fine ball player.

KHS was proud of its fast-breaking, smooth ball-handling Reserve Basketball team this year. The team was made up of Sophomores and Juniors, and they showed much promise of being a fine varsity team next year. The boys possessed a fighting spirit and a good sense of team work. Most of their losses were only by a few points.

Mr. Harland Kinney is to be congratulated for the fine work he has done in training these boys, who realized that they would have to take the 'bumps' in order to learn the game. Almost every night they scrimmaged with the varsity team.

A reserve team is an essential factor in developing a good varsity squad, it es the younger members a chance to obtain much helpful playing experience.

The tumbling team for 1949-1950 was a small but mighty group. The members, led by their president, Duane Deardorff, and ably coached by Miss Joy Garrison and Mr. Lee Gellenbeck, appeared at many civic affairs including several basketball games, where they received a great ovation for their skill and clever routines. The group was highly honored in January by an invitation to demonstrate at Wittenberg College in Springfield.

Golf

The 1949-1950 KHS Golf Team consisted of the following: Dick Mulvaine, Bob Gemmell, Mack Flinn, and Bruce Howard, lettermen; Lois Buchhagen, Joanne Graham, Eleanor Graham and Mary Lou Briedenbach, letterwomen; and Bill Sellers, Arnold Smith, and Bert Howard.

The team was coached by Miss Joy Garrison and Mr. James Griffith. The group participated in the District Golf Tournament which was held at the Findlay Country Club.

During the 1949-1950 season the team held matches with the following high school golf groups:
